

Spectrum Investment Advisors Was Named A Best Place To Work In Money Management By Pensions & Investments

New York, NY – Spectrum Investment Advisors, located in Mequon, Wisconsin, is one of 29 firms with 20 – 49 employees to be named a 2020 Best Places to Work in Money Management by Pensions & Investments. The ninth-annual survey and recognition program is dedicated to identifying and recognizing the best employers in the money management industry. “In this very unusual year, we learned again that employers that consider the overall wellbeing of their employees are regarded well. The best employers in 2020 are those that have stepped up with policies and practices to support and protect employees’ physical and emotional health, while continuing to keep the focus on clients’ needs,” said P&I Editor Amy B. Resnick. “Our surveys found that the employers on the list were likely to work hard to sustain their corporate cultures, even during times of pandemic lockdowns, and continuing to work from home in many cases.”

“To be nationally recognized as a Best Place to Work within our industry is a testament to the wonderful people that are part of our team,” said Manuel Rosado, president of Spectrum Investment Advisors. “It starts with our culture, and the passionate work and collaboration we share across the firm. At Spectrum, we celebrate success both corporately and individually, while encouraging our employees to find a balance between working hard and enjoying their lives and families.”

Pensions & Investments partnered with Best Companies Group, a research firm specializing in identifying great places to work, to conduct a two-part survey process of employers and their employees.

The first part consisted of evaluating each nominated company's workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems and demographics. The second part consisted of an employee survey to measure the employee experience. The combined scores determined the top companies.
